

APPRENTICESHIP PROVIDER CHECKLIST

It's essential to know who you are working with. To get the most out of the programme it is important to choose a provider that fits with your organisation, and meets your business needs. There is an abundance of information available, so here's a short checklist of important things to take into account when finding an Apprenticeship training provider.

Are they registered with the Skills Funding Agency?

You can find the SFA register on the Gov.uk website:
www.gov.uk/government/publications/register-of-training-organisations

Are they on the Register of apprenticeship training providers?

From May 2017 you can check if they're on the Register here:
www.gov.uk/government/collections/register-of-apprenticeship-training-providers

Have you read their latest OFSTED report?

You can find OFSTED reports here:
reports.ofsted.gov.uk

Have you checked their Learner Satisfaction reports?

You can find FE Choices survey results and Ofsted results below:
www.gov.uk/government/collections/fe-choices-information-for-providers
learnerview.ofsted.gov.uk/results

The Greater Cambridge Greater Peterborough LEP works closely with the Signpost 2 Skills Providers Network to ensure that the advice they offer to employers about apprenticeships is clear, fair and meets the need of local businesses.

Details of which providers are members of the Signpost 2 Skills Network can be found at www.gcgp.co.uk/s2snetwork.

If you would like to speak to an employer that is already using apprenticeships to find out about how it has benefited their business please see our list of current Apprenticeship Ambassadors here: www.gcgp.co.uk/gcgp-lep-ambassadors

